Retrenchment in the cost of conductes the municipal government, which as been the cry and hope of real estate wners for many years seems to have en inaugurated in one direction at and buildings in the civic centre by unicipal departments which ocupy priustely owned premises. The retrenchment means a saving of $111,500 a rear minus the interest on the city's awatement in the buildings in the court base site affected by the economy. They are the New York Life Insurance

They are the New 10rk Life insurance annex at 49 Lafayette street, a twelve story structure, and part of the seven gary building at 125 and 127 Worth gart. The Public Service Commission, which occupies practically two floors in the Equitable Building on lower Broadfor which the city pays $107,060 a sareliouse is to be moved from 96 Reade street to the Worth street building, which means a saving of $4,500 a year. s that is the rental paid for the space leade street and the big space in the Equitable Building are sorely needed, so that the movement of the public service rmants will be welcomed by merchants and concerns who have been seeking pare in these sections.

The Public Service Commission will movement of its engineering on to the Lafayette street build department to the Larayette atreet building on Saturday. The engineering described in the continuous couples the entire twenty-fourth floor of the Equitable Building. The movement of the other department of the Public Service Commission can be done at any time up to May 1, when the lease on the downtown precises will expire. The Public Service Board has asked the Board of Estimate for an appropriation of $70,000 to mate for an appropriation of $70,000 to put the building in shape for its needs. the alteration, so that everything will be fairly good shape when he entire com-masien takes over the building in May. The building is twelve stories high and contains about 70,000 square feet, frontthe Equitable Building, but since the working force of the commission has been decreasing steadily with the compend of the various subways, it is ex-pected that the difference in space will hardly be feit. PART VICTORY FOR LYNN SHOE WORKERS

Two Branches of Industry to Get Higher Wages.

Boston, Feb. 7 .- Henry B. Endicott. executive manager of the State Com-mittee on Public Safety, in a report today as arbitrator in the Lynn sho workers' wage dispute which resulted in the closing of twenty factories for a period of five months last year, declined period of five months last year, declined to grant increase: except in the case of stitching and packing room employees, who will get a 10 per cent. advance. Many of the latter are women. Mr. Endicott found that wages in Lynn were the highest received by shoe workers in any of the shoe centres of the country. An agreement by which Mr. Endicott. An agreement by which Mr. Endicott was accepted as arbitrator was reached on September 19. The factories, many of which had been closed since April, resumed operations September 24, the 15,000 employees agreeing to return to work at the old schedules of wages, which included a 10 per cent bonus granted in January. It also was agreed that there should be no strikes or lockouts for a period of three years from September 19 and that the decision of September 19 and that the decision of the arbitrator should be final. An agreement by which Mr. Endicot the arbitrator should be final. the arbitrator should be that.

Since that time, Mr. Endicott said, he had heard arguments by representatives of the employers and employees and had to the President.

SALICYLIC ACID WAS BOOKED AS QUININE

Austrians Held on Charge of Conspiracy.

Officers of the army intelligence police, operating with the police bomit squad, yesterday seized Peter Franches an employee in the offices of Madero Bros., exporters at 100 John street, and brought him before Samue! M. Hitch rock, United States Commissioner.
There Franches was charged by Frank M. Roosa, Assistant United States Attorney, with having conspired with his employer. Donk L. Milae, an Aus-trian arrested on Wednesday, to defraud this Government by filing false mani lests on exports.

The Commissioner held Milac in $15, 000 bail and Franches in $5,000 for examination February 14. Upon the arraignment Mr. Roosa stated that Milac had previously been convicted of conspiracy to smuggle optum into this country and that he served one year and one day in At-lanta Federal Penitentiary for that of-

Milac is accused with having caused thirty-two cases of salicylic acid to be delivered to Pier 7 in Brooklyn for shipment as quintine to a soldiers' hospital run by Felice Bisleri of Milan, Italy. This acid would not have served the purpose of the quintie, and therefore would have caused great harm, for which reason the officials think the scheme may have been one to impair the work being done at that hospital. As it costs but from $1 to $1.50 a pound, while cuinine is $1.20 per ounce, the costs of the swindled of an

Dr. Phillips, New Minister, Here to Urge Lifting of Embargo.

LOOKS FOR SETTLEMENT

Would Release 500,000 Tons of Shipping in U. S. Ports.

Dr. August Phillips, recently apresterday on the Holland America liner Nieuw Amsterdam, expects to be able to bring about an early agreement between the two countries whereby the 500,000 tons of Dutch shipping tied up in American harbors will be freed. Approximately seventy Dutch versels are held in New York harbor. "I look for a satisfactory settlement between the United States and my country so that Holland may receive the grain and food and oll and other stuffs that she so badly needs," Dr. Phillips Ritz-Carlton yesterday afternoon. "Holland has always depended upon America for so much of her food and grain and we're having a very hard time to get along without it now. I am con-fident that things can be arranged so fident that things can be arranged so that any tension will soon be relieved." According to the Minister a con-ference has been going on for some time past in London between the representatives of the United States, Great Britain and Holland over the question of lifting the ship embargo against Holland. Recently a special Dutch delegation was sent to Washington to take up the question here, but the mission being unsuccessful all the members returned to Holland except one.
